

After a jump rebid by opener

The responder after a jump rebid by opener.

- This rebid shows a single suiter with 15 à 17HCP and a nice 6+ card suit .
- It is not forcing : The responder may pass after a 1 level initial bid
- It is forcing to game After an initial response at the 2 level

If the opening bid is in a Major, the camp will look for a trump contract. If the opening bid is in a minor, the camp will look first for a NT contract..

Problem E5030 The second bid of the responder (2 NT) is not forcing ; minimum the opener passes.

After a jump rebid by opener

Support in Major of the opener.

Fitted, will prioritize supporting the opener. After a suit change at the 2 level, this support shows slam ambitions.

Problem E5034 Non forcing support showing interest in game... not for slam.

After a jump rebid by opener

Jump rebid of opening minor suit Après la répétition à saut de la mineure d'ouverture

With less than 7-8HCP pass.

Otherwise, the first objective is to explore a potential NT game. Any new bid is forcing to game

- Even with a weak hand (7-8HCP), stoppers in other suits and some extra values in opening suit, bid 3NT
- If you are missing a hold in a suit, bid your secondary strength at the 3 level
- Repeat your Major with R cards (or very nice ones)... to look for a Major trump game
- Bid in opening minor suit with a fit and slam hopes
