

Further bidding after a 2-suiter

Further bidding after a 2-suiter : Support

- After a jump 2-suiter, any support bid below game is forcing. It shows slam hopes in a major, but could be investigation for the best game in a minor
  - After an economic 2-suiter,
    - Pass is possible after a 1/1 response with 6-10HD
    - Just returning to 2 in the opening suit is simple preference, non forcing, with 2 cards : It shows 6-10HCP
    - Support at the 3 level in the opening suit is forcing to game and shows slam ambitions in a major.
    - Support at level 3 in the second suit is only forcing to game after a 2/1 initial response... otherwise it is only invitational 2/1, sinon il est propositionnel
-

Further bidding after a 2-suiter

Repetition of his suit by the responder

- After a jump 2-suiter, The simple repetition of his suit by the responder is forcing and shows 6 cards or 5 very nice cards
- After an economic 2-suiter,
  - The simple repetition of his suit by the responder shows 6 cards and 6-10HCP
  - The jump repetition of his suit by the responder shows 6 cards and 11-12HCP

These bids are not forcing.

---

Further bidding after a 2-suiter

NT bids

- After a jump 2-suiter,, a 2NT bid is limited to 12HD....beyond, a slam should be investigated
  - After an economic 2-suiter,
    - A 2NT bid shows 11-12HD
    - A 3NT bid shows 13-15HD
-